1 Applicable regulations

This document is a description of the Corporate Governance Statement of Pohjola Bank plc (Pohjola), as referred to in Chapter 7, Section 7 and Chapter 8 and Section 15 of the Act on Credit Institutions and Chapter 7, Section 7 of the Securities Markets Act. The Statement has been issued separately from the Report by the Board of Directors.

At its meeting on 23 February 2016, the Board of Directors discussed this Corporate Governance Statement. KPMG Oy Ab, the Company's auditor, has verified that the Statement has been issued and that the description it contains covering the main features of internal control and risk management systems related to the financial reporting process is consistent with the financial statements.

This Corporate Governance Statement is available on Pohjola's website at www.pohjola.com > Investor Relations > Corporate Governance > Corporate Governance Statement > Year 2015. This Statement together with the Financial Statements, Report by the Board of Directors and Auditor's Report are available at www.pohjola.com > Media > Releases.

The Articles of Association are available on Pohjola's website at www.pohjola.com > Corporate Governance > Articles of Association.

In its operations, Pohjola complies with Finnish legislation. In addition to the Finnish Limited Liability Companies Act, Pohjola complies with regulations governing securities issuers, financial services companies and insurance companies, its Articles of Association and the guidelines issued by OP Cooperative. In its international operations, Pohjola also complies with local laws when applicable.

Pohjola belongs to the amalgamation of cooperative banks, under applicable legislation, and is a subsidiary of OP Cooperative, the central cooperative of said amalgamation. Laws and Pohjola's Articles of Association set some restrictions on the composition of the Board of Directors. The Company acts as the central financial institution for OP Financial Group member cooperative banks.

2 Structure of OP Financial Group and Pohjola Group, and administrative bodies

2.1 Group structure

Pohjola Bank plc is a subsidiary wholly owned by OP Cooperative acting as OP Financial Group's central cooperative, and a member credit institution. In terms of operations and ownership, Pohjola belongs to OP Financial Group which provides banking, insurance and other financial services. OP Financial Group consists of around 180 cooperative banks and their central cooperative, OP Cooperative, with its subsidiaries. OP Financial Group is supervised as a single entity.

The central cooperative is obliged to support its member credit institutions and is liable for their debts. The member credit institutions are obliged to participate in any necessary support measures aimed at preventing another member credit institution from going into liquidation. In addition, they are jointly and severally liable for debts of a member credit institution failing to meet its obligations.

Read more about OP Financial Group's structure in section 2 of OP Financial Group's Corporate Governance Statement 2015.

2.2 Structure of Pohjola Group

Pohjola Group comprises Pohjola Bank plc, the parent company, and its subsidiaries. The most significant subsidiaries are Pohjola Insurance Ltd, A-Insurance Ltd, Eurooppalainen Insurance Company Ltd and Omasairaala Oy. Pohjola also has branch offices engaged in banking, and subsidiaries running finance-company business in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, and Seesam Insurance AS, which runs non-life insurance business in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

According to the previously announced plan, Pohjola Bank plc's extraordinary general meeting adopted a demerger plan on 22 October 2015. The partial demerger involved the transfer of wealth management, card and property management operations to OP Cooperative. The execution date of the partial demerger was 30 December 2015 and it was implemented at carrying amounts. As a result, the assets and liabilities and other items of the Wealth Management segment have been presented as of 30 June 2014 separately in the balance sheet as assets and liabilities classified as held for distribution to owners and in the income statement as discontinued operations, in accordance with IFRS 5. Pohjola Group is still making plans for restructuring under which the Non-life Insurance segment would be transferred from Pohjola Group to direct ownership of OP Cooperative. In addition, OP is assessing the option of separating central banking operations to become a subsidiary wholly owned by OP Cooperative. The manner to implement these changes or schedule has not yet been decided.

The central banking operating model is being updated as of 1 January 2016. This means changing the division of responsibilities between Markets and Treasury. The Markets division's Fixed-income and FX Trading and Bonds department will transfer from Pohjola Bank plc's Banking to OP Financial Group's ALM Management and Group Treasury that forms part of the Other Operations segment. Markets will focus on supporting OP Financial Group member cooperative banks in selling market risk products. This new division will also change OP Financial Group's internal allocation of financial results to a minor extent.

When OP Financial Group announced a tender offer for Pohjola shares in February 2014, it also announced a plan that Pohjola Bank plc and Helsinki OP Bank Plc would merge. OP Financial Group abandoned this plan. According to a new plan, Helsinki OP Bank Ltd will be converted into a cooperative bank during 2016.

Pohjola Bank plc will be renamed OP Corporate Bank plc in the spring of 2016. Omasairaala Oy will be renamed Pohjola Health Ltd in the summer of 2016 when the Tampere hospital unit is opened.

Businesses in the Helsinki Metropolitan Area will operate under the shared management. From the customer's perspective, the Group aims to provide a uniform OP financial services offering encompassing all banking, non-life insurance and wealth management products and services.

2.3 Administrative bodies

A shareholder exercises the highest decision-making powers at a General Meeting and the Meeting elects the Board of Directors (except for the Chairman) and auditors. The Board of Directors is in charge of the Company's strategic management. Responsibility for operational management rests with the President and CEO appointed by the Board of Directors.

Pohjola Group's structure on 31 December 2015

3 General Meeting

A General Meeting is Pohjola's highest decision-making body. The Annual General Meeting (AGM) must be held within six months of the termination of the financial year on a date specified by the Board of Directors. The AGM shall discuss matters assigned to it in accordance with the Articles of Association and any other business referred to in the notice of the meeting.

In accordance with Pohjola's Articles of Association, the AGM must present

- the financial statements and the Report by the Board of Directors;

decide on

- the adoption of the financial statements;
- the allocation of profit shown on the balance sheet;
- the discharge from liability of the members of the Board of Directors and the CEO;
- the number of members of the Board of Directors and their emoluments;
- auditor's remuneration;

elect

- Board members and an auditor;

and discuss

- any other business in the Notice of the Meeting.

3.1 Annual General Meeting 2015

Pohjola Bank plc's Annual General Meeting (AGM) of 19 March 2015 adopted the Financial Statements for 2014, discharged members of the Board of Directors and the President and CEO from liability and decided to distribute a dividend of EUR 0.43 per share.

The Extraordinary General Meeting of 22 October 2015 adopted a demerger plan whereby some Pohjola bank plc's assets and liabilities transferred without any liquidation procedure to OP Omistus 1, a company established in the partial demerger. The execution of the demerger was entered in the Trade Register on 30 December 2015.

4 Board of Directors and its committees

4.1 Board of Directors

4.1.1 Election of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has a Chairman, who chairs the Executive Board of the central cooperative of the amalgamation, and a minimum of two and a maximum of three other members elected by the General Meeting. The AGM elects, except for the Chairman, members to the Board of Directors for a term of office expiring upon the closing of the AGM following their election. In accordance with the Act on Cooperative Banks and Other Cooperative Credit Institutions, the Chairman of OP Cooperative's Executive Board chairs the Board of Directors.

In accordance with the Articles of Association, Pohjola has not set any upper age limit for members of the Board of Directors, limited the number of their terms of office or in any other manner restricted decision-making powers of a General Meeting in electing Board members (with the exception of election of the Chairman).

The parent institution, OP Cooperative, prepares proposals for the election of Board members submitted to the AGM.

Credit institutions' board members are required to demonstrate the kind of reliability and professionalism and to fulfil the fit and proper criteria specified in the Act on Credit Institutions and official regulations. Board members are subject to a regular Fit & Proper assessment.

4.1.2 Members of the Board of Directors

Information on the members of the Board of Directors in 2015 can be found in table "Board and committee meetings: frequency and attendance in 2015" below and Board members' personal data and other relevant information at the end of 12.1 below.

4.1.3 Independence of Board members

All of the members of the Board of Directors are executive members dependent on the Company and its shareholder (OP Cooperative). All Board members are members of the Executive Board of OP Cooperative, the parent institution: Reijo Karhinen, CEO, Chairman of the Executive Board, OP Cooperative; Tony Vepsäläinen, Executive Vice President, Operations, OP Cooperative; Harri Luhtala, CFO, OP Cooperative; and Erik Palmén, CRO, OP Cooperative.

4.1.4 Board duties

The Board of Directors is responsible for the Company's administration and appropriate organisation of operations and for the duly organisation of the supervision of accounting and financial management. It deals with far-reaching and important matters in principle from the perspective of the Company's and its consolidation group's operations.

The Board of Directors and the President and CEO shall manage the Company and its consolidation group professionally following sound and prudent business practices.

The Board of Directors has confirmed written rules of procedure defining the duties and meeting procedures applying to the Board of Directors.

In this respect, the Board of Directors shall, among other things,

- decide on the Company's business strategy, in line with the principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board, and supervise its implementation;
- confirm the core values applied in the Company's business in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- approve an annual business plan and supervise its implementation in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- confirm the principles and procedures for ensuring the fitness and propriety of the Company's and its consolidation group's management in line with the principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- decide on the basic principles of the remuneration schemes governing the Company's management and other employees in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- appoint and dismiss the President and CEO and his deputy after hearing the Executive Board of the central cooperative;
- annually adopt the Company's capital adequacy management principles, risk policies/risk strategies, funding plan, capital plan, investment plan and significant operating principles governing risk management in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- confirm outsourcing guidelines in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- confirm the principles of internal audit and an action plan in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Supervisory Board;
- confirm the key principles of the Company's compliance policy and compliance activities in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- decide on the organisational structure of the Company and its functions and the management system in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- confirm the description of internal control and supervise the performance and adequacy of internal control within the Company and its consolidation group, in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- discuss and approve the financial statements and interim reports;
- make a proposal on the amount of dividends payable in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- approve the principles which promote the diversity of the Board composition, in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- annually confirm the Company's business continuity plan in line with principles adopted by the Executive Board;
- be responsible for any other duties of the Board of Directors as prescribed by legislation or in regulations issued by the relevant authority.

The following principles shall apply to Board meetings:

- The Board of Directors meets an average of 4–6 times a year, convened by the Chairman.
- The Chairman and the President and CEO assume primary responsibility for the preparation of the meeting.

- The Board of Directors has a quorum when more than half of its members are present.
- Those present at Board meetings comprise Board members and the President and CEO but Board meetings may also be attended by some other person whose presence is necessary due to the matter under discussion.
- Minutes of Board meetings shall be drawn up and be signed by all Board members and the secretary.

4.1.5 Responsibilities of Chairman of the Board of Directors

The Board Chairman is responsible for ensuring that the Board of Directors works efficiently and performs all duties within its remit. As part of this responsibility, the Board Chairman shall ensure that an individual Board member has the experience and skills required to perform his duties in an appropriate manner. The Chairman cooperates with the President and CEO in preparing items on the agenda for Board meetings. He shall also ensure that sufficient time has been allowed for discussion and that each member present at meetings has the opportunity to express his opinion. The Chairman is also responsible for the further development of Board work and ensures the Company's good corporate governance.

4.1.6 Board work in 2015

The Board of Directors had 17 meetings in 2015. The Board of Directors was chaired by Reijo Karhinen and Tony Vepsäläinen, Harri Luhtala and Erik Palmén were members. The average attendance rate of its members stood at 100%.

At its meetings, the Board of Directors discussed issues mentioned in 4.1.4 above. The main duties of the Board of Directors also included monitoring strategy implementation and monitoring the achievement of the estimated cost-savings.

Major changes are taking place in financial regulation. Some of the changes will have material effects on Pohjola Group, its operations and the capital adequacy regulations concerning the Group. The Board was following closely in 2015 how the regulatory changes were taking shape and what their effect would be on Pohjola Group.

5 President and CEO

5.1 President and CEO

The President and CEO is in charge of the Company's daily management in accordance with the instructions and orders issued by the Board of Directors, while ensuring that accounting practices comply with the laws and that financial management is organised in a reliable manner.

The President and CEO's duties include the management and supervision of the Company's business, and responsibility for the development and coordination of the Company's operations. In accordance with the job description confirmed by the Board of Directors, the President and CEO's main responsibilities are as follows:

- Group financial performance
- Managing Group operations and developing the organisation
- Group strategic development
- Group coordination
- Supervising subsidiary and associated company investments
- Cooperation with OP Cooperative and other OP Financial Group's units
- Lobbying in the financial sector's cooperation bodies

- Communication with customers, shareholder, various authorities, the corporate sector, Finnish and international banking and insurance organisations, and other stakeholder groups.

The Board of Directors appoints the President and CEO and decides on the terms and conditions of his executive contract. A written executive contract with Executive Vice President for Banking within OP Financial Group and its appendix specifies the terms and conditions of the executive contract with the President and CEO. The Board of Directors annually assesses the performance of the President and CEO.

Jouko Pölönen, M.Sc. (Econ. & Bus. Adm.), eMBA, Executive Vice President, Banking, OP Financial Group, acts as the President and CEO. He has acted as President and CEO since 2013.

Personal and other data on the President and CEO can be found in 12.2 below. Information on the President and CEO's remuneration can be found in 9 below.

5.2 Board of directors of Pohjola's subsidiaries

The board of directors of each Pohjola's subsidiary shall ensure that all Pohjola Group companies are managed in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations, and OP Financial Group's principles.

6 Management system

Pohjola's operations are managed in accordance with OP Financial Group central cooperative consolidated's management system through three business segments. The description of this management system is part of the description of OP Financial Group's Corporate Governance Statement.

Read more about OP Financial Group's management system in section 6 of OP Financial Group's Corporate Governance Statement 2015.

6.1 Pohjola as part of the central cooperative consolidated

The OP central cooperative consolidated comprises OP Cooperative, which acts as the central cooperative owned by the member banks of the amalgamation, and entities majority-owned or wholly-owned by the parent institution or any of its subsidiaries. Pohjola Bank plc and its subsidiaries belong to the central cooperative consolidated. Credit institutions within the central cooperative consolidated are the member credit institutions of the amalgamation described in greater detail in the Act on the Amalgamation of Deposit Banks.

OP Cooperative is owned by OP Financial Group member cooperative banks. The Supervisory Board of the central cooperative represents the owners. The general role of the Supervisory Board is to oversee the corporate governance of the central cooperative consolidated as managed by the Executive Board and the President and Group Executive Chairman, the supreme operational decision-making body of the central cooperative consolidated, and ensure that the central cooperative's and its Group's operations are managed in an expert and prudent manner in accordance with the Co-operatives Act and in the best interests of the central cooperative and OP Financial Group. The Supervisory Board also oversees compliance with OP Financial Group level policy guidelines and principles, which it has confirmed, within the central cooperative consolidated. The special task of the Supervisory Board is to confirm the general principles referred to in the Act on the Amalgamation of Deposit Banks. It is also tasked with deciding on issuing key OP Financial Group level guidelines.

6.2 Organizational structure as of 31 December 2015

Based on the management system, the organisation of the central cooperative consolidated is founded on the following three business segments: Banking, Non-life Insurance and Wealth Management.

The support functions required by business segments (e.g. Finance and Treasury, Risk Management, HR Management and Development) have been organised at the central cooperative consolidated level.

6.3 Decision-making

OP Cooperative's Executive Board has operational responsibility for the management of the entire central cooperative consolidated. The basis for management within the Group consists of the following three business segments: Banking, Non-life Insurance and Wealth Management. Executive Board members' duties and areas of responsibility follow this division. Within the Executive Board, Pohjola's President and CEO is responsible for banking.

The Executive Board is responsible for managing the central cooperative's and its consolidation group's operations in accordance with applicable laws, official regulations and the central cooperative Bylaws. The Executive Board takes charge of the governance and appropriate organisation of the parent institution and its consolidation group, as well for managing the Group's operations. Furthermore, the Executive Board confirms the central cooperative consolidated's operational and legal decision-making processes.

In the central cooperative consolidated, decisions are made as extensively as possible at Group level by the central cooperative's Executive Board. As a general rule, Pohjola's Board of Directors considers matters that concern it in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative's Executive Board or after hearing the Executive Board about the matters discussed.

The Board rules of procedure describe the key tasks that the Board of Directors carries out.

6.4 Pohjola's performance monitoring and reporting

Pohjola monitors the implementation of plans and the achievement of the set goals and targets on an ongoing basis in order to quickly identify any changes in the operating and competitive environment and deviations from the plans and to be able to initiate any corrective measures. Performance reviews between superiors and their subordinates are also aimed at discussing the achievement of goals and targets based on past performance, according to the organisational structure. Reporting must provide a true and clear picture of the status of line operations vis-à-vis the objectives set, actual and expected performance and any risks threatening to prevent the achievement of the objectives. Providing updated and reliable information and highlighting relevant issues and conclusions as the basis of decision-making play a key role in performance monitoring. In addition to actual performance reporting, preparing forecasts and creating optional scenarios form an integral part of monitoring. Performance monitoring is part of internal control aimed at ensuring that the Group

- implements its strategy and action plans and achieves its financial targets
- runs comprehensive and adequate risk management
- operates efficiently and reliably
- has reliable financial and other reporting in place
- abides by laws and comply with external and internal regulation.

7 Internal and external control

7.1 Internal control

Internal control is aimed at ensuring systematic and successful strategy implementation, appropriate management of risks, efficient and reliable operations, and regulatory compliance throughout the Group's operations. Internal control covers all organisational levels. Internal control in its most extensive form primarily takes place at the operational level, characterised by continuous processes and forming part of daily routines.

The OP Financial Group level Risk Management, Finance and Treasury and HR functions independent of the business lines/divisions assist the President and CEO and executive management and other functions in ensuring the effectiveness of internal control within each business. Internal Audit also assists Pohjola's Board of Directors and President and CEO in ensuring internal control effectiveness. Auditors in particular ensure that financial information is correct in this respect.

The board of directors of each Group company is in charge of duties ensuring internal control within the company. Internal Audit also covers Group companies and supports their boards of directors in ensuring effective internal control.

7.1.1 The Board of Directors' role

The Board of Directors is responsible for organising and maintaining adequate and effective internal control. It shall, for example,

- confirm the internal control principles and supervise the performance and adequacy of internal control in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative's Executive Board;
- annually adopt the Company's capital adequacy management principles, risk policies/risk strategies, funding plan, capital plan, investment plan and significant operating principles governing risk management in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative;
- decide on principles for ensuring that the Company and its consolidation group operate in compliance with external regulation and internal instructions (compliance) in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board;
- confirm the principles of internal audit and an action plan in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Supervisory Board;
- confirm the principles and procedures for ensuring the fitness and propriety of the Company's and its consolidation group's management in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board; and
- decide on the organisational structure and management system for the Company and its functions in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board.

Central cooperative consolidated-level risk management and financial reporting are performed in a coordinated way by a function independent of the business lines/divisions. Each Group company's board of directors is responsible for the top management tasks of the company in question related to internal control. Each Group company's executive management is responsible for the implementation of internal control and risk management according to the agreed principles and guidelines, and shall regularly report on the company's business, risk-bearing capacity and risk status, in accordance with the Group's management system.

7.1.2 Internal control in 2015

The Board of Directors is responsible for considering issues related to the Group's governance and is in charge of internal control effectiveness and ensuring regulatory compliance.

In 2015, internal control tasks included assessing the fitness and propriety of all members of the Board of Directors. In addition, the Board of Directors assessed its own performance.

The executive management and the Board of Directors assessed the performance of good corporate governance and internal control.

7.1.3 Compliance function

The Compliance function is tasked with assisting senior management and executive management and business lines/divisions in the management of risks associated with regulatory non-compliance, supervising regulatory compliance and, for its part, developing internal control further. Finance and Treasury and HR Services are, for their part, in charge of regulatory compliance management.

Almost all activities involve compliance risk and responsibility for the management of risks rests with the business lines/divisions. The President and CEO is in charge of the Company's compliance activities. OP Financial Group's Compliance, whose director reports to the OP Financial Group's CRO, supports the President and CEO in this respect. Compliance activities and the related recommendations issued to the business lines/divisions are subject to regular reporting to Pohjola Bank plc's Board of Directors. Compliance activities must also be reported to the Executive Board of the central cooperative consolidated and the Audit Committee of the Supervisory Board as part of OP Financial Group level reporting.

As part of the annual risk management plan, OP Financial Group's Compliance function shall annually draw up a compliance action plan which will be discussed and confirmed by Pohjola Bank plc's Board of Directors with respect to the Company. Principles and instructions governing compliance shall also be confirmed in the same manner. OP Financial Group's Compliance function controls the Company's compliance and is also responsible for compliance risk management at OP Financial Group level and the provision of advice and support concerning compliance risk.

Compliance is aimed at preventing the materialisation of compliance risks. For this purpose, the Compliance function shall, for example,

- prepare and maintain guidelines on key matters related to practices;
- advise employees on, and train them in, matters related practices;
- support the business lines/divisions in the planning of development measures promoting the management of compliance risks;
- keep senior and executive management and the business lines/divisions informed of upcoming regulatory changes and monitor the business lines'/divisions' preparation for regulatory changes;
- supervise compliance within the Group with the current regulatory framework, ethical practices and internal guidelines related to practices; and
- regularly report to both senior and executive management on recommendations and the results of control given to the business lines/divisions and other observations related to compliance risk exposure.

7.1.4 Risk management

Pohjola's core values, strategic goals and financial targets form the basis for risk and capital adequacy management. The purpose of risk management is to identify threats and opportunities affecting strategy implementation. The objective is to help achieve the targets set in the strategy by controlling that risks taken are proportional to risk-bearing capacity. The Company is a moderate risk-taker and its business operations are based on a reasoned risk/return approach.

The Company applies integrated risk management aimed at identifying, assessing and mitigating all major business-related risks to an acceptable level. The Company has integrated its risk management process as part of the central cooperative consolidated's decision-making, control and monitoring system.

7.1.4.1 Major risks

The Company's major risks include credit risks, market risks, liquidity risks, underwriting risks and market risks associated with investments, as well as strategic and operational risks associated with all business operations.

More detailed information on major risks can be found in Pohjola's most recent Report by the Board of Directors and Financial Statements (see www.pohjola.com > Media > Material Service).

7.1.4.2 Internal capital adequacy assessment process (ICAAP)

Forming part of integrated risk management, capital adequacy management aims to ensure effective capital management and the sufficient quantity and quality of capital in order to secure uninterrupted operations in the event of unexpected losses. Capital adequacy management also involves good corporate governance and the organisation of internal control and risk management, in view of the nature, extent and diversity of operations. Capital adequacy management is grounded on a proactive approach based on the Group's business strategy and plans. In preparing the strategy and the plans, the Group sets its capital adequacy target, considering business-related risks, risk appetite, target returns on capital and the structure and availability of capital. In addition to the capital adequacy target, the internal capital adequacy assessment process defines capitalisation targets by business line, capital adequacy forecasts, stress tests, scenarios and sensitivity analyses, as well as a contingency plan for maintaining the capital adequacy target considering all material risks arising from the business and changes in the operating environment.

Capital adequacy management places a strong emphasis on profitability and effective capital management. Pohjola Bank plc's parent company, OP Cooperative, is responsible for capital management on a coordinated basis. Every year, subsidiaries distribute their surplus capital to OP Cooperative as dividends and, if necessary, OP Cooperative injects capital into the subsidiaries through subordinated loans or equity investments.

Internal Audit is responsible for the independent assessment and quality of capital adequacy management.

7.1.4.3 Risk policies

OP Financial Group's risk policy controls Pohjola Group's risk-taking. In the risk policy, the central cooperative's Executive Board confirms annually risk-management principles, actions, objectives and restrictions that the Group's business segments and entities must follow to implement the principles agreed on in the strategy. In the risk policy and supplementary guidelines by risk type, risk appetite is apportioned to various types of risks in such a way that the Company is able to achieve its business goals without jeopardising its risk-bearing capacity and capital adequacy targets. The risk policy is also aimed at restricting the creation of risk concentrations.

In addition, Non-life Insurance is guided by risk policies applied to private and corporate customers, reinsurance principles, investment plans and the policy governing hedging against interest rate risk associated with insurance liabilities.

7.1.4.4 Organisation of risk management and capital adequacy management

The Company's Board of Directors decides on the goals and organisation of risk management and capital adequacy management, confirms the risk and capital adequacy management principles, risk policy, investment plans and the main principles governing risk management in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board.

In addition, the Board of Directors supervises and monitors the implementation of risk management and capital adequacy management. The Board ensures the adequacy of risk management systems, confirms business goals, assesses the need for the Group's and Group companies' capital buffers, confirms capital plans and a proactive contingency plan for the capital base, and decides on principles for ensuring that the Company and its consolidation group operate in compliance with external regulation and internal instructions (compliance). It also decides on reporting procedures which senior management uses to monitor the Group's and its subsidiaries' business, risk-bearing capacity and risk status. The Board assesses the appropriateness, extent and reliability of Pohjola Group's capital adequacy management on a holistic basis at least once a year. In the aforementioned tasks, the Board of Directors acts in line with principles adopted by the central cooperative Executive Board.

The Board is responsible for ensuring that the Company and its consolidation group have an adequate capital adequacy management and risk management systems covering all operations. The Board of Directors is also tasked with supervising the Company and its consolidation group so that they do not take excessive risks which would materially jeopardise the Company's and its consolidation group's capital adequacy, liquidity or profitability, and that the Company's risk-bearing capacity is sufficient to secure business continuity. To carry out its duties, the Board deals with the Company's capital adequacy management principles, risk policy and other general guidelines governing risk management. The Board supervises the scope and performance of the Company's risk management systems and the quantity and quality of the Company's and its consolidation group's capital base, developments in their financial performance, risk exposure and compliance with the risk policy, credit limits and other instructions. The Board also supervises the Company to ensure that risk management is in conformity with laws and regulations and instructions issued by relevant authorities. Pohjola's President and CEO takes charge of the overall control of the Company in such a way that the Company as a whole achieves its profit, risk-bearing capacity and other targets and goals by following shared strategies and policies. To carry out its duties, the President and CEO shall particularly deal with the strategy and action plan of the Company, significant issues to be presented to the Board of Directors, policy issues related to ALM and risk management as well as major purchases and projects.

The President and CEO is tasked with analysing, coordinating and controlling the Company's asset/liability management in accordance with laws, official regulations and the risk policy. The President and CEO deals with the development of the equity structure, the allocation of equity to business units and risk types and the allocation of credit limits specified in risk policy to the business lines/divisions.

OP Cooperative is responsible for OP Financial Group-level risk and capital adequacy management and for ensuring that OP Financial Group's risk management system is sufficient and kept up to date. OP Financial Group's Risk Management is a function independent of business lines/divisions that defines, steers and supervises the overall risk management of the Group and its entities, and analyses their risk exposure. As part of the central cooperative consolidated and OP Financial Group, the Company follows the principles of OP Financial Group-level risk and capital adequacy management in its risk and capital adequacy management. Risk Management also assists in decision-making and controls the quality of the credit decision process. It also assesses risks associated with the introduction of new products and business models/concepts.

The business lines/divisions shall bear primary responsibility for their risk-taking, financial performance and compliance with the principles of internal control and risk management and capital adequacy management. The business lines/divisions have the right to take decisions on risk-taking within the approved decision-making powers, exposure limits and credit limits in compliance with the Company's risk policy and guidelines.

A more detailed description of the Company's risk management and capital adequacy management principles and risk exposure can be found in the Group's most recent Report by the Board of Directors and Financial Statements (see www.pohjola.com > Media > Material Service).

7.1.4.5 Risk management in 2015

In risk management of the central cooperative, 2015 included monitoring external regulatory changes and continuing to prepare for regulatory changes. Significant changes relevant to Pohjola Group included the EU Solvency II Directive applying to insurance companies and the EBA technical guideline on the management of interest rate risk in the banking book.

The Company continued to further develop its risk management assessment processes and operational processes in order to ensure that risk management has been integrated as part of all business. In addition, the Group continued to update its risk management guidelines, risk reporting and risk limitation.

7.1.5 Internal audit

The Internal Audit function is tasked with assisting Pohjola Bank plc's Board of Directors and the Company's management in controlling, supervising and assuring operations by carrying out operational audits. Internal audit is based on an independent and objective assessment, assurance and consulting activities. It supports the management in their efforts to achieve objectives by providing a systematic, disciplined approach to assessing and upgrading the efficiency of the organisation's risk management, control and management and governance processes, with the focus on the identification of risk factors and the assessment of the performance of internal control.

Responsibility for internal audit rests with two Internal Audit functions within Audit of Pohjola Bank plc's parent institution, OP Cooperative, whose heads report to the Chief Audit Executive of OP Financial Group. The Chief Audit Executive reports audit observations applying to the Company to Pohjola Bank plc's Board of Directors and the President and CEO.

The Board of Directors has confirmed the instructions governing the organisation and operating principles of internal audit. Internal Audit prepares an annual action plan submitted for the Board's approval. It also produces special reports at the management's request.

Internal Audit is a function independent of the business lines/divisions. Internal Audit shall prepare a report on each audit and deliver it to the President and CEO, auditors, the Compliance function and those in charge of the business line concerned. These reports may contain recommendations aimed at improvements. Internal Audit shall monitor the implementation of the recommended improvements. Internal Audit shall annually report to the Board of Directors on its major observations and the implementation of the action plan. Internal audit is conducted in compliance with good internal auditing practice. The International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing, issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors, and professional standards, issued by the Information Systems Audit and Control Association, and the code of ethics provide the conceptual framework for good internal auditing practice.

7.1.5.1 Internal audit in 2015

The internal audit action plan for 2015, approved by the Board of Directors, contained nine audits applying to Pohjola Bank plc. Audits based on the action plan were performed. The year 2015 also involved two reported audits which were included in the internal audit action plan for 2014. These audits involved assessing the effectiveness of Pohjola Bank plc's controls and internal control in various operating processes and information systems, as well as the effectiveness of risk management and its procedures.

7.2 External control

7.2.1 Audit

For the purpose of examining the Company's accounting, financial statements and governance, Pohjola Bank plc's Articles of Association stipulate that the General Meeting shall elect an auditor which must be a firm of authorised public accountants approved by the Finland Chamber of Commerce. The auditors' term of office is the financial year during which they were elected, ending upon the closing of the Annual General Meeting following their election.

Pohjola Bank plc's parent institution, OP Cooperative, puts audit services out to tender at some five years' interval (last time at the end of 2011), on the basis of which it proposes eligible auditors to the Annual General Meeting.

The auditors are tasked with auditing the accounting, financial statements and governance of the Company in order to obtain assurance that the Company and its administrative bodies act in compliance with applicable laws and that the financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the rules and regulations in force and give the shareholder and other stakeholders a true and fair view of the financial performance and the financial position of the Company. The Board of Directors annually assesses the performance of the auditor and the quality of advisory services.

The auditors presents the Auditor's Report to the Annual General Meeting, expressing their opinion of the content of the financial statements and proposed profit distribution, and the discharge those in charge from liability. Based on their observations, they shall also draw up audit memoranda delivered to Pohjola Bank plc's Board of Directors, President and CEO, Internal Audit and the Financial Supervisory Authority. Whenever necessary, auditors also issue oral reports to the aforementioned persons and bodies.

The Board of Directors consults the auditor when dealing with the annual accounts and interim accounts, as well as the accounting policies. The auditors have a statutory obligation to notify the Financial Supervisory Authority of any matters or decisions that put operations and the existence of licence requirements at risk, or that result in an opinion in the Auditor's Report other than the unqualified opinion, as referred to in the Auditing Act, or result in an auditors' remark as referred to in Section 15, Paragraph 4 of the Auditing Act.

Audit fees for statutory audit are based an annual plan.

7.2.1.1 Audit in 2015

KPMG Oy Ab, a firm of authorised public accountants, acted as the Company's auditor in 2015, with Raija-Leena Hankonen, APA, acting as the Chief Auditor, appointed by KPMG Oy Ab. KPMG Oy Ab, a firm of authorised public accountants, has acted the Company's auditor since 2002 with APA Raija-Leena Hankonen as the Chief Auditor since 2014. KPMG Oy Ab, a firm of authorised public accountants, and auditors appointed by KPMG Oy Ab acted as auditors of Pohjola Group's subsidiaries.

Pohjola Group's audit plan for 2015 was prepared as part of the central cooperative consolidated's audit plan. Statutory audit of separate companies and the Group involves the audit of the entity's accounting, financial statements, report by the board of directors and governance for the financial year. The Markets operations, central banking, insurance institutions' investment, non-life insurance reinsurance, credit risks and outsourced services/functions included the priorities in statutory audit. In addition, all published interim reports and financial statements bulletins have been audited.

Pohjola Group has used KPMG Oy Ab's advisory services related mainly to the comfort letters of bond programmes and tax counselling.

7.2.1.2 Auditors' remuneration in Pohjola Group in 2015

In 2015, audit fees for audit paid to auditors totalled EUR 383,000 million (321,000), whereas fees for assignments as referred to in Section 1, Sub-paragraph 1(2) of the Auditing Act were EUR 179,000 (119,000), those for tax counselling EUR 34,000 (20,000) and for other services EUR 161,000 (118,000), or a total of EUR 757,000 (577,000).

7.2.2 Supervision by OP Cooperative

Pohjola belongs to the amalgamation of cooperative banks, under applicable laws. The amalgamation comprises OP Cooperative as the central cooperative together with its member credit institutions and financial institutions and service companies over which they exercise control. OP Cooperative controls the amalgamation's operations and provides the companies within the amalgamation with guidelines on the qualitative requirements for safeguarding their liquidity and capital adequacy, as well as guidelines for their risk management, good corporate governance and internal control. The central cooperative may also confirm general principles to be followed by the member credit institutions in operations relevant to the amalgamation.

In addition, the central cooperative supervises the operations of its member credit institutions in the manner as referred to in the Act on the Amalgamation of Deposit Banks. In its operations, the Company takes account of OP Financial Group's strategy, confirmed by OP Cooperative's Supervisory Board, and regulations and guidelines on risk management and other operations issued by OP Cooperative to the member banks. The Company reports to OP Cooperative in a separately agreed manner.

7.2.3 Regulatory supervision

The Company is supervised by the Financial Supervisory Authority and the ECB as prescribed in the laws governing financial and insurance markets. The Company's operations in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania are supervised when applicable by the respective national regulators.

As part of OP Financial Group, Pohjola as a credit institution was transferred under the ECB's supervision in November 2014.

Read more about OP Financial Group's internal and external supervision in section 7 of OP Financial Group's Corporate Governance Statement 2015.

8 Financial reporting process

Pohjola's operations are managed in accordance with OP Financial Group central cooperative consolidated's new management system through three business segments. A description of OP Financial Group's financial reporting system forms part of OP Financial Group's Corporate Governance Statement.

The different financial management units subordinate to OP Financial Group's CFO take charge of not only the preparation of interim and annual accounts for OP Financial Group and Group entities, as required by financial accounting, but also of the production of management accounting reports, such as monthly reports on business performance. The Group Control function within OP Financial Group also produces earnings forecasts and analyses the actual outcome in comparison with the forecasts and reports on any deviations.

Pohjola Bank plc as part of the central cooperative consolidated is subject to regulatory supervision. According to regulations issued by the regulators, the Board of Directors of Pohjola Bank plc must decide on reporting and other internal control methods that senior management uses to monitor the Company's operations, financial performance and risks associated with operations. Group-level financial information correctly consolidated using sub-ledger accounting and Group companies' information forms the basis of reliable financial reporting.

Pohjola Group reports its business segments – Banking, Non-life Insurance and, until the end of 2015 as discontinued operations, Wealth Management – and Other Operations as its operating segments in internal and external reporting. According to the previously announced plan, Pohjola Bank plc's extraordinary general meeting adopted a demerger plan on 22 October 2015. The partial demerger involved the transfer of wealth management, card and property management operations to OP Cooperative. The execution date of the partial demerger was 30 December 2015 and it was implemented at carrying amounts. As a result, the assets and liabilities and other items of the Wealth Management segment have been presented as of 30 June 2014 separately in the balance sheet as assets and liabilities classified as held for distribution to owners and in the income statement as discontinued operations, in accordance with IFRS 5.

Pohjola Group is still making plans for restructuring under which the Non-life Insurance segment would be transferred from Pohjola Group to direct ownership of OP Cooperative. In addition, OP is assessing the option of separating central banking operations to become a subsidiary wholly owned by OP Cooperative. The manner to implement these changes or schedule has not yet been decided. OP Financial Group uses Group-wide financial reporting and risk reporting to monitor the achievement of its business goals and financial targets, and these reports are regularly reviewed at executive management and Board meetings. Financial information in financial reports is compared with related plans and any differences are analysed and the report also describes earnings outlook for the current year and for a longer period of time. The very same principles apply to the monthly financial performance and risk report prepared by the management. When preparing and examining the report, the management ascertains the accuracy and correctness of the financial results and reporting by analysing the performance and risk exposure and any deviations from targets.

Pohjola Group's external reporting is based, for example, on the International Financial Reporting Standards, the Finnish Limited Liability Companies Act, the Act on Credit Institutions, the Insurance Companies Act, the Accounting Act, and the standards and regulations issued by the Financial Supervisory Authority. Pohjola Bank plc follows OP Financial Group's shared principles in the accounting and financial statements of the Company and Group companies and in the consolidated financial statements. Pohjola Group prepares its financial statements in compliance with IFRS. The financial statements of special-purpose companies are prepared in compliance with the Finnish Accounting Standards (FAS). Responsibility for the interpretation of the official accounting standards and the provision of the related instructions and guidance as well as supervision of compliance with the common accounting policies rests with OP Cooperative, OP Financial Group's central cooperative. Whenever necessary, OP Cooperative turns to auditors who give a statement of the selected principles and interpretations.

The financial reporting guidelines and application instructions have been compiled to form an accounting manual which includes interpretations of the IFRS at the OP Financial Group level. The updatedness of the most significant standards is annually checked as part of the update of the accounting policies.

Read more about OP Financial Group's financial reporting process in section 8 of OP Financial Group's Corporate Governance Statement 2015.

8.1 Organisation of financial reporting

OP Cooperative's Executive Board is the highest decision-making body in matters associated with business control. The Board of Directors must ensure that supervision of accounting and financial management is duly organised. It decides on reporting, procedures and qualitative and quantitative indicators used to assess operational efficiency and performance in line with principles adopted by OP Cooperative. The Board of Directors discusses and approves the consolidated financial statements and interim reports.

The Board of Directors is tasked with ensuring that the Company has a sufficient internal control system covering all of its operations and that the supervision of accounting and financial management is duly organised. It must also evaluate how the Company complies with laws, regulations, official instructions and internal instructions. The Board also discusses the most significant changes made to the accounting policies during the financial year, principles governing impairment testing for goodwill and intangible assets and the outcome of this testing, and critical accounting estimates and judgements, as well as control reports and reports prepared by regulators, auditors, Internal Audit and the Compliance function.

Under the Limited Liability Companies Act, the President and CEO shall ensure that the Company's and its consolidation group's accounting practices comply with the law and that financial management is organised in a reliable manner. OP Cooperative's Finance and Treasury, independent of business lines/divisions, is responsible for the Group's financial reporting. This function produces reliable, relevant and up-to-date information on the Group's performance and finances, and keeps the Board of Directors and the President and CEO and other decision-makers informed of the Group's financial performance and near-term outlook. The President and CEO shall also control the quality of outsourced accounting services and services for reports to regulators and other relevant authorities, and develop business control and risk management methods, indicators and the supporting systems.

Compiling financial statements information and interim reports are coordinated at the central cooperative consolidated level. The needs of the management and business lines/divisions as well as applicable legislation guide reporting.

Reporting systems and communication have been established in such a way that monitoring and controlling goals and targets, financial performance, operations and risks at specified organisational levels in the appropriate way by business division and on the whole are possible and that the required reporting and communication are open both vertically and horizontally throughout the organisation. When reporting Pohjola Group's and business lines' results and other inside information, it is necessary to ensure that those receiving the report belong to the Insider Register.

Business control primarily uses OP Financial Group's shared systems. Operational duties related to financial and management accounting are coordinated at OP Financial Group central cooperative consolidated level.

8.2 Independent assessment of financial reporting

As provided by law, auditors shall assess the accuracy of external financial reporting. The auditors are tasked with auditing the accounting, financial statements and governance of the Company and its consolidation group in order to obtain assurance that the Company and its administrative bodies act in compliance with applicable laws and that the financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the rules and regulations in force and give owners and other stakeholders a true and fair view of the financial performance and the financial position of the Company and its consolidation group.

In its audits, Internal Audit assesses the effectiveness and adequacy of the Company's and its consolidation group's financial reporting, and reports these audits to the executive management and the Board of Directors. During its inspections, the Financial Supervisory Authority also oversees the financial reporting process and its effectiveness.

8.3 Financial reporting in 2015

Pohjola Group's financial statements were prepared in accordance with IFRS, applying IASs, IFRSs and SIC and IFRIC interpretations effective on 31 December 2015.

In 2015, OP Financial Group and Pohjola Group adopted the following standards and interpretations:

- IAS 19 Employee Benefits amendment to Defined Benefit Plans: Employee Contributions. These changes have clarified accounting treatment when a defined benefit pension plan requires the employees or third parties to contribute. These standard changes have no effect on OP Financial Group's financial statements.
- Annual improvements to IFRS for cycles 2010–2012 and 2011–2013 (applicable mainly to accounting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014.) Minor amendments are annually made to standards through the Annual Improvements process. The effects of the amendments vary by standard but they are not significant.

In addition to the adopted standards above, OP Financial Group has changed the valuation model for non-life insurance liability in such a way that it takes account of a change in the discount rate as one continuously updated variable of an accounting estimate. The change has no effect on the comparability between financial statements and on annualised figures. Furthermore, the Group has specified the presentation of non-life and life insurance commissions and fees in the income statement. The change has no effect on earnings and does not affect segment reporting.

9 Remuneration

9.1 Board emoluments and other benefits

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) decides on Board emoluments and other benefits, proposed by the parent institution, OP Cooperative.

The Board members did not receive any separate attendance fees or monthly emoluments in 2015.

9.2 President and CEO's salary and other benefits

The Board of Directors appoints the President and CEO and decides on his salary, benefits and the terms and conditions of his executive contract. A written executive contract with Executive Vice President for Banking within OP Financial Group and its appendix specifies the terms and conditions of the executive contract with the President and CEO.

The President and CEO as OP Financial Group's Executive Vice President, Banking, is a member of OP Cooperative's Executive Board whose members' retirement age is 63 years. Pension benefits are determined in accordance with pension laws and OP Financial Group's own pension plans. The President and CEO is covered by TyEL (the Finnish Employees Pensions Act) which provides pension benefits based on the years of employment and earnings as prescribed in the Act. The President and CEO is not included in any supplementary pension plan.

The period of notice applicable under the President and CEO's executive contract is six months. According to the executive contract with the Executive Vice President of Banking, the Company must pay the President and CEO severance pay equalling his 12-month total salary, in addition to compensation for loss of office, if the Company dismisses him or he has to resign or terminate the contract due to a reason attributable to the Company. In case the executive contract terminates due to reasons attributable to the Company, the President and CEO will be entitled to bonuses under the short- and long-term incentive schemes for the year of contract termination, provided that the schemes' performance criteria and the criteria for payment under the schemes' terms and conditions are fulfilled.

9.3 Principles governing remuneration paid to the President and CEO and other management

The remuneration schemes approved by the central cooperative consolidated are aimed at encouraging and engaging key human resources in the development of business and ensuring that the Company attracts new key employees. The Board of Directors assesses and monitors regularly the effectiveness of the Company's remuneration schemes with the aim of ensuring that remuneration policies and practices with respect to all personnel groups are in line with core values, strategy, targets and goals, risk policies and control systems. The regulations regarding the financial sector's incentive schemes have been taken into account in establishing the Group's remuneration schemes.

Remuneration payable to the President and CEO and other executives consists of the following three components: 1) Basic pay (salary and fringe benefits, based on the job grade and skills); 2) short-term incentives (performance-based bonuses, based on the achievement of targets under the annual plan); and 3) long-term incentives (OP Financial Group's long-term management incentive scheme, based on the achievement of the Group's shared strategic goals and targets).

The Board of Directors is responsible for deciding on remuneration to the President and CEO and other management.

9.4 Short-term management incentive scheme

The Board of Directors decides annually on the short-term management incentive scheme, based on targets shared by the executives and deriving from the Company's annual plan and the results achieved, on the one hand, and on personal targets set during the performance reviews held at the beginning of each year, on the other hand. In addition, the entire financial services group's financial performance is taken into account with respect to the President and CEO. The next performance reviews a year later involves the assessment of the achievement of these targets. The Company's financial performance vis-à-vis the target set affects maximum bonus amounts stepwise. If the Group posts a pre-tax loss, no short-term performance-based bonuses will be paid to the executives. If OP Financial Group or Pohjola Group reports a capital adequacy ratio of less than 130% under the Act on the Supervision of Financial and Insurance Conglomerates at the end of each performance year, no bonuses will be paid either.

In 2015, the President and CEO is entitled to a maximum bonus corresponding to his regular four-month salary subject to PAYE tax. Bonuses under the short-term incentive scheme are paid in cash, in view of OP Financial Group's payment guidelines with respect to persons affecting the Company's risk profile (Identified Staff).

9.5 Long-term management incentive scheme

Based on the decision by the Company's Board of Directors, Pohjola adheres to OP Financial Group's long-term management remuneration scheme. The scheme has Group-level targets with the primary performance indicators including growth in the number of customers using OP Financial Group as their main bank and insurer, the Group's EBT and the Group's Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio. Profitability (return on economic capital) and capital adequacy under the Act on the Supervision of Financial and Insurance Conglomerates are indicators incorporated into the scheme. No bonus will be paid if capital adequacy under said Act is less than the minimum 130% on the date of payout.

OP Financial Group's shared management incentive scheme consists of consecutive three-year performance periods, of which the period of 2014–2016 is underway. The Supervisory Board shall decide on the commencement of a new performance period. The Supervisory Board shall determine the performance metrics for the scheme and a target set for them separately for each performance period. The President and CEO and other persons confirmed by the Board of Directors are included in the scheme.

The persons included in the incentive scheme may receive a specified quantity of debentures issued by OP Financial Group if the strategic targets specified for OP Financial Group are met during the performance period in question. The bonus based on the scheme will be paid out to the beneficiary in terms of debentures and cash and in three instalments in 2018, 2019 and 2020 after the performance period, provided that OP Financial Group's capital adequacy is higher than the minimum requirement on the payout date. Taxes and tax-like charges incurred by the key employee will form the portion paid in cash. Bonus payout includes conditions relating to the duration of employment or executive contracts and stipulations governing the hedging prohibition and the retention period. The hedging prohibition refers to a prohibition against use of financial instruments or insurance under the incentive scheme for hedging personal risks. The President and CEO must hold the debentures received under the scheme for one year from the bonus payout date (retention period). Restrictions governing the retention period also apply to other people included in the scheme on certain terms specified in greater detail.

The bonus is determined by the management position. If the set targets are annually achieved at 100%, the management and key employees and the President and CEO will be entitled to a bonus equalling their regular 4–6-month salary subject to PAYE tax.

9.6 Long-term incentive scheme for other employees

The majority of personnel (excl. management) is included in the long-term incentive scheme based on OP Financial Group Personnel Fund. This long-term scheme is grounded on the achievement of OP Financial Group's shared strategic goals and targets. The scheme uses the same target performance metrics as the long-term management incentive scheme. The Board of Directors annually determines the amount of profit-based bonuses transferred to the Fund.

10 Insider management

As provider of investment services and securities issuer, Pohjola Bank plc has its own Insider Guidelines and Guidelines for Insider Trading. The Guidelines contain regulations on inside information, prohibition against abuse of inside information, insider registers, trading restrictions applying to insiders and insider management. The Guidelines also cover restrictions imposed on relevant persons and the organisation of supervision of compliance with the restrictions. Those with regular access to inside information on securities issued by Pohjola Bank plc are included in the non-public company-specific insider registers of the Company.

The Insider Guidelines and Guidelines on Insider Trading are based, for example, on laws governing securities markets, regulations issued by the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority and the Securities Trading Instructions for Member Organisations of the Federation of Finnish Financial Services (Finanssialan Keskusliiton sijoituspalveluja tarjoavien jäsenyhteisöjen kaupankäyntiohje).

These Guidelines are aimed at fostering stock market players' trust in Pohjola Bank plc.

OP-Services Ltd's Legal Services shall maintain the public insider registers and permanent company-specific insider registers of OP Financial Group's entities through the SIRE system maintained by Euroclear Finland Ltd.

When necessary, Pohjola Bank plc maintains a project-specific insider register.

As a credit institution, Pohjola Bank's operations include participation in securities trades performed by clients or in other transactions related to securities. In connection with financing arrangements or as part of Pohjola Bank plc's other ordinary operations, Pohjola Bank plc and its executives and salaried employees may receive inside information on client companies. For the abovementioned reasons, among other things, Pohjola Bank plc and its executives and salaried employees are subject to insider regulation as referred to in the applicable law.

Training in insider issues is available on a regular basis. In particular, training takes place as a result of changes in the insider-related guidelines.

10.1 Access to insider registers and their display for public inspection

Anyone has the right to access the public register of insider holdings and receive extracts and copies of the information in the register against a charge. However, a natural person's personal ID code and address and the name of a natural person other than the insider are not publicly available. Information included in the permanent company-specific insider register or project-specific registers is not publicly available. Extracts from and copies of the public register of insider holdings can be ordered from OP-Services Ltd's Legal Services. Written requests for such information specifically describing the information sought should be submitted to:
